You can contact your accountant or tax advisor for more information.

The information is also on your last check stub that you received in December 2023. If you have any questions, please feel free to email aea@alpineuniserv.org and this amount can be figured for you.

*NOTE: Due to new tax laws and changing tax laws, some of you may not be able to deduct these on your tax return. Please seek advice from your accountant or tax advisor.

Thank you,
